

WILSON ADMINISTRATION PRAISED AT FIRST SESSION DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

DEMONSTRATIONS LAST FOR HALF AN HOUR

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—From the shadow of the Golden Gate the hosts of Democracy sent a roaring tribute today to President Wilson. The national convention flung aside for the moment its business while delegates carried on a demonstration that swept the gathering off its feet.

It was a half hour before the outburst evoked by a display of the president's portrait was stilled. Again and again as his name was mentioned, cheers broke anew, culminating in the shout of approval that adopted and sent to the white house a striking testimonial of his party's faith and pride in the man who has led it thru troublous years.

Arrangements for the first national political convention to be held in the far west had been well made. The great hall, its clean architectural lines almost unmarred by added decorations, was ready and thru a dozen wide aisles where thousands poured in with little delay or congestion. They found a wide octagonal space awaiting them, with a massive organ rearing its pipes above the platform and the other sides rising to a far line of seats under high windows framing squares of California's skies.

In the center of the hall where the delegates sat railed within a wide aisle of seats an inner ceiling of blue that rested the eye. Below, a forest of standards bearing the names of states and territories was the only reminder of national conventions of the past. Perched high beside the organ in a special gallery, a military band, was stationed.

As noon and the opening time approached, a color guard of marines appeared from the platform. A six-foot sergeant with a regimental flag in his hand made a vivid spot of color on the platform. At his side stood the armed non-commissioned officers of the color guard and with them two marine buglers. When Vice-Chairman Cramer of the national committee gave the signal a bugler sounded "attention." The first notes of the Star Spangled Banner rang out from the band and the organ together and as delegates, alternates, spectators and attendants stood in tribute, a monster flag dropped from the ceiling to form a wall of color behind the platform. It obscured the view of the band gallery and organ loft, but as it fell, the tones of the organ rose joining in the national anthem. From floor and galleries delegates and spectators cheered.

When came the touch that set the convention off with a wild shout of exaltation. The great flag was gathered slowly upward and as it rose, it uncovered a flag draped and illumined portrait of President Wilson. For a moment there was a pause. Then came the tumult.

A wild shout rang out. It was caught up and echoed from side to side. Rising with hysterical force the sound grew, a formless, toneless thing that had in it something that stirred the blood and pulled at the emotions. Delegates leaped on their chairs, waving and shouting. They stampeded into the aisles, jostling and cheering in a packed mass before the platform. Over in the Virginia section a delegate ripped the carpet from the floor and ran toward the speaker's dais, waving it high in the air. Cheers followed. Some were as the shouting and continued, standard after standard came up and the march of the flag began. In the Virginia section, Assistant Secretary Cramer of the national committee, standard and pushed forward a delegate battling with others who sought to unhold the sign. A shout of added intensity marked the delegates' recognition of the incident and a cheer for Roosevelt was all but lost in the tumult.

It was long before order was restored. Even when Vice-Chairman Cramer had begun speaking, echoes of the storm still lurked in the air. He was repeatedly interrupted by the clamor of approval that greeted every thrust at the Republican party or at any reference to President Wilson.

When Chairman Homer S. Cummings of the national committee had been elected temporary chairman and escorted to the platform they finally hushed and prepared to listen with close attention to his keynote address. Delegates expected something to cheer at and they were not disappointed.

Mr. Cummings began in a quiet voice. A few shouts of "louder" came but he had not proceeded far before the throng was so still every syllable was carried to the galleries. It was a long speech. Mr. Cummings suggested that to his hearers, but cries of "go on, make your time," met him. His audience was alert to cap his place with shouted approval. At a place he chided the platform Republicans because it contained no word of hope for Ireland no word of mercy for Ar-

M'ADOO'S NAME MOST PROMINENT AMONG LEADERS

Backers Await Statement from New York Man

PALMER AND COX MEN BUSY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—There is more McAdoo talk tonight but there is apparently no change in the real situation among candidates.

Tonight shows the first signs of a movement among leaders and managers to round up sentiment among uninstructed delegates.

Principally, the night is given over to meetings of the four big committees. The leaders and candidate managers are all under one roof and altho they are engaged in committee business they are not losing the opportunity to confer and possibly get together on a state.

McAdoo boomers hoped their candidate would make some statement amplifying the declaration of National Committee Love of Texas, that the nomination would not be rejected. Some were disappointed and others thought Mr. McAdoo was pursuing a wise course in remaining silent.

Palmer people continued their efforts to make a strong showing on early ballots, as were the Cox people. About the only point the three forces would agree on was that there would be no nomination on the first ballot.

The McAdoo people today agreed on S. B. Amidon, of Wichita, Kan., as their floor leader and began picking a representative on each state delegation. Most of the McAdoo boomers are saying they do not expect any support for the Tammany delegation of New York unless it becomes apparent that McAdoo will be nominated. Talk of Secretary Meredith for second place as his running mate continued.

The talk of candidates on the whole tonight is almost where it was last week, without any appearances of strength enough for a nomination at any corner.

Mr. Bryan and others still feel that the question of candidates cannot become active until the platform issues are closed. Administration supporters said they were confident that the platform would be written in terms of support for President Wilson and many predicted it would have no prohibition plank.

Refuses to Comment.

Huntington, N. Y., June 28.—William C. McAdoo informed a newspaperman at his country home tonight, he does not want to be "bothered" about politics. He refused to discuss the Democratic convention or the statement of Thomas B. Love, Texas, national committeeman, that he would not refuse the presidential nomination if the convention tendered it. The newspaperman was stopped by a watchman, but he was induced to communicate with Mr. McAdoo.

"Now what is on your mind?" Mr. McAdoo.

The caller explained he desired to discuss the Democratic convention whereupon McAdoo stated he would have nothing to say. He said he had no means of communication with the convention and that he preferred to "learn of its activities through newspapers."

He declined an offer to keep him informed of developments, declaring he preferred not to have the privacy of his home invaded.

"I much prefer and shall have to insist upon not being disturbed," he declared.

"He has initiated and secured the adoption of great progressive measures of immeasurable value and benefit to the people of the United States."

"As the commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States he has led the patriotic forces of his country thru the most momentous struggle in history and without check, reverse or retardation, to an honorable part in the immortal victory for liberty and Democracy, won by the free nations of the world."

"We hail these achievements, sir, and are proud that they have been accomplished under your administration."

"We rejoice in the recovery of your health and strength after months of suffering and affliction which you have borne with courage and without complaint."

"We deeply resent the malignant onset which you have met and undeservedly been called upon to sustain from partisan foes, whose judgment is warped and whose perceptions are obscured by a party malice, which constitutes a lamentable and disgraceful page in our history."

"At this moment, when the delegates to this convention from every state in the union are about to enter upon formal proceedings we pause to send you an expression of cheer, of admiration and of congratulation."

"We rejoice and felicitate you upon your speedy recovery from your recent illness and congratulate America that the temporarily broken in body of this great man has been able to clouded vision and undimmed courage to press on for the great reforms which you have fathered for the world in the interest of humanity and the advancement of civilization. Long may you live to serve America and the world."

DECIDE TO REVIEW CLAIM OF SEN. REED

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The credentials committee of the Democratic national convention tonight decided to hear and review the claim of Senator Reed of Missouri to a seat as a delegate.

Reed's opponents contended the committee had no jurisdiction but their claims finally were dismissed.

The credentials committee elected W. T. Asher, Iowa, chairman, and proceeded to hear the argument in the Georgia case yesterday which the national committee already has seated Palmer delegates and ratified the selection of Clark Howell as national committeeman. Oregon was expected to present a contest.

CUMINGS SOUNDS KEYNOTE SPEECH FOR DEMOCRATS

Opening Session of Convention Made Very Brief

MEET AGAIN THIS MORNING

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—During its one brief session today the Democratic national convention heard the keynote speech delivered by National Chairman Cummings and delivered several prolonged demonstrations for President Wilson.

When adjournment was taken until tomorrow after a three hour session the real work of the convention began among the committees delegated to write the platform, decide appeals of contesting delegations and select a set of permanent convention officers.

Demonstrations for President Wilson began as soon as the session opened and every mention of his name thereafter was received with cheers. Display of a portrait of him at the back of the platform stirred up a twenty minute uproar during which nearly all of the state standards were carried about the floor in the first parade of the convention. Mention of the league of nations also aroused prolonged outbursts of approval of the president.

Aside from the keynote speech today's meeting was given over to routine the convention going thru the motions of approving committee delegations already made by the states.

Virtually no further business will be transacted until the committees are ready to report. All of them held meetings tonight and all except the resolutions committee expected to finish its work by tomorrow.

Fights over prohibition, the league of nations, and Ireland, however, promised to prolong the task of writing the platform in the resolutions committee and some of the members thought it might not be able to report for three days.

None of these questions came sharply to the surface during today's convention session altho Chairman Cummings' argument for the league of nations was interrupted by a woman at the back of the hall who wanted to know something about Ireland. It made only a momentary stir.

SENATOR HARDING FACES BUSY WEEK

WASHINGTON, June 28.—In anticipation of his departure Saturday for Marion, Ohio, a busy week faced Senator Harding, when he reached Washington tonight after a week end visit at Rarritan, N. J., since his departure Friday much work has accumulated but he hopes to clear this away before leaving Washington.

It was said tonight that his only fixed engagement for tomorrow was to speak on Americanism for a phonograph record to be used in the campaign.

The senator and Governor Calvin Coolidge candidate for the vice presidency, will confer Wednesday. Additional progressive leaders are expected this week to confer with the nominee.

Mr. Harding today received a small good luck, horseshoe forged by Charles Dorsch of Martinsburg, Pa., who in a letter said he hoped it would bring the largest measure of success.

MAKING FIGHT FOR IRISH FREEDOM

GLASS NAMED CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE TO FRAME DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

Administration Leader Unanimously Chosen
Leader at Meeting of Committee on Resolutions—Bryan Opens His Fight on Prohibition and League of Nations.

AUDITORIUM, San Francisco, June 28.—Senator Glass of Virginia, was unanimously elected chairman of the committee on resolutions when the committee met for organization tonight. There was no opposition. Senator Walsh of Montana, seconded Senator Glass' nomination.

The first test of strength proved the claim of the administration forces that they were in control of the situation and they contended it forecast further control in the framing of the platform. Senator Walsh was understood to have the backing of William J. Bryan.

Senator Walsh had been urged for the chairmanship by a group headed by western delegations. They abandoned the fight when a canvass of the committee revealed a majority against them. With the choice of a chairman the committee turned attention to the discussion of methods to hasten its work.

Mr. Glass made a brief speech accepting the place.

The committee authorized appointment of a subcommittee of five to hold public hearings for those desiring to present various planks and party issues and to prepare a tentative platform draft.

Senator Glass was not prepared to name the subcommittee to work on the platform at once, and plans went forward for the full committee to hear some of those who had suggested planks to offer.

In supporting Senator Glass' nomination, Senator Walsh said that while he had been a candidate for the chairmanship he felt he could do his party a greater service by withdrawing in favor of Mr. Glass. Senator Walsh of Massachusetts was elected secretary of the committee. The hearings began immediately in the open session were before the full committee. Governor Stuart of Montana suggested planks promising reclamation, irrigation and other development of natural resources.

The subcommittee appointed by Chairman Glass to draft the platform includes:

Senator Glass, chairman; Senator Walsh, Montana; Vance McCormick, Pennsylvania, and Secretary Colby, District of Columbia.

What woman suffragists want in the platform was outlined by Mrs. George Bass of New York who submitted a report of the women's associate committee of the national committee recommending these declarations:

Adequate child labor law and a reiteration of the party's stand against employment of women.

Continuation of the federal children's bureau and of the women's bureau.

Independent citizenship for women.

Proper protection and aid for maternity.

Woman's representation on important government commissions.

More attention to education with better salaries.

Speaking for the National Education association, a delegation pleaded for a federal department of education.

The platform of the National League of Women Voters called for planks on child welfare, education, high prices of household commodities, public health and morals, independent citizenship for women and federal aid for maternity.

Organize Rules Committee.

The committee on convention rules elected J. T. Spellacy, of Connecticut chairman, and took up the question of whether the convention should proceed to the nomination before adopting a platform. It was suggested that this be done to expedite the proceeding as it was understood that the drafting of the platform would take some time.

Organization Committee.

Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas was unanimously recommended by the committee on permanent organization tonight for the permanent chairmanship of the convention.

Other temporary officers of the convention were recommended by the committee to continue their duties as permanent officers.

Senator Robinson was placed in nomination by Mrs. W. A. McDougal, of Oklahoma. His nomination was made unanimous.

The committee decided to recommend the addition of an associate secretary of the convention to the officers and E. E. Britton of North Carolina, private secretary to Secretary Daniels, was chosen.

At the opening of the committee session former Governor Ralston of Indiana, was chosen chairman.

Bryan Opens Fight.

The fight over prohibition, the league of nations, the Irish question and other subjects which have troubled Democratic leaders, was centered tonight in the conference room of the committee on platform and resolutions.

As the committee sessions began some of the most experienced

Milton B. Hopper, a junior in Northwestern university, spent the week end as the guest of Rev. C. W. Randall and family. He returned to Chicago Monday morning.

If the heat seems oppressive and you catch any of the general restlessness of the times, just make a visit to Nichols Park. Certainly it is a beautiful place there these days—a place where a wonderful spirit of restfulness prevails. The best of it is you can catch some of that spirit merely with a visit.

So far Mr. McAdoo seems to be the one best guess at the San Francisco convention. Various members of the cabinet have been in the convention city quietly urging his nomination and it looks as if the "Crown Prince" is the choice of the administration.

With so many of the delegates, office holders and other evidence of administration strength on view, the McAdoo nomination now looks like the most logical course. Republicans will express no regrets.

Because a number of Chicago city employees have struck for higher wages and because there are no funds with which to pay them, the positions are to be temporarily abolished. Possibly that may be the necessary solution for the financial troubles of municipalities. If cities do not have the sympathy available to pay for the service which the public wants, the public must learn to get along without such service. There is no reason why the public, just as well as individuals, cannot learn to economize.

It was a favorite term of the political writers to refer to the Chicago convention as a great united aggregation of men. The spoiled writers continually bemoan the lack of leadership and talk about the lack of big men. They do not like to use these same phrases with reference to the San Francisco convention but certainly they are applicable. It is because of the lack of leadership or too much leadership, that such chaos now prevails in convention circles.

In Macon county the farm bureau is to make an accurate survey of the county in order to list livestock of every kind and description on the farms there. This information is to be used by the livestock association in its marketing plan. Incidentally such a list should prove valuable to assessors. If Macon is like most counties, the number of head of livestock in the survey list will be considerably greater than that made as of the first of April.

Wet Democrats have control of the Illinois delegation at San Francisco and they want something definite on the liquor question in the platform. But wiser counsels will prevail and the majority will declare that prohibition is the law of the land and the matter of the percentage of alcohol is something for congressional action only. The wets can more effectively turn their attention to the selection of congressmen who sympathize with their ideas as to the right percentages of alcoholic content.

The railroad managements have given instructions that every car of coal received by a dealer must be unloaded within twenty-four hours. If this order is not carried out there will be an embargo effective on such dealer.

This sounds very well, as if the interstate commerce commission or the railroad managers were attending strictly to business. But neither empty nor loaded cars will help out the situation much until some way is found for the more rapid movement of these cars. It is freight congestion that has been the trouble, not the holding of loaded cars at the railroad terminals.

WHY HE APPEALS TO THE COMMON PEOPLE

Senator Harding appeals to the vast army of ordinary people in the middle and far west, who like a man with a lot of common sense and not too many theoretical and throbbing thrills. The common people who are going to settle the election do not live in marble palaces, ride in $10,000 limousines, rise at noon and go to bed at 5 a. m. They are not the sort of people who find pleasure in "great ways" but in modest homes and wholesome atmosphere.

They like Senator Harding. They understand him. He is of their kind. They see in him a reflection from the "voices in the air," from the folly of a government run by "moral mush" without Yankee horse sense, from so much theoretical reform efficiency as to lose sight of results. This is why the millions and millions of men and women in the cities and towns of the land, on the farms of the great middle and far west sort of "take to Senator Harding," and will vote for him. This is why he will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

AWAY WITH ONE MAN RULE

The Bache Review suggests that each candidate for president name in advance the men he will appoint to cabinet positions if he is elected. Then there is the further suggestion that these cabinet possibilities tour the country and tell the public just how they will expect to manage their departments if their standard bearer is elected, and they are appointed to the cabinet post.

This would certainly put a big burden on cabinet members who at the best must be satisfied with the honor of appointment as a part of their reward, for the salaries paid are not sufficient to maintain them in Washington life. Then the candidate would be at a disadvantage for the man who has offices at his disposal is always somewhat more popular before the distribution takes place than afterward.

The suggestion was probably not made with the idea that it will be followed, but it does give point to the desire on the part of the people to do away with the one-man government idea. The people are looking this time for a president who will be willing to share responsibility and act after he has consulted with men of wisdom and experience.

LAND SHARKS.

We used to journey off to Rome to spend the long vacation; but now we jaunt around at home for rest and recreation. Our native land has all the goods that any country offers; our mountains and primeval woods rebuke the world tour scooters. We have a string of gorgeous parks, and rivers, lakes and oceans; we also have all kinds of sharks who stir up wild emotions. When any region makes a hit, and people go to view it, the natives say, "Before they flit we'll get their rolls, beshrew it." The stranger who's within their gates, in his new big and tuckered, is trimmed by profiteering skates who greet him as a sucker. The landlord dishes up a meal that tastes like brick and mortar, and charges, with his nerve of steel, two dollars and a quarter. The pirate of the rooming shack no conscience has in keeping, and for a bed that breaks your back, his charges set you weeping. The system's foolish and insane, so profiteers will find it; and gaudy advertising's vain if piracy's behind it. The man who's stung in Glossy Glen will tell the world about it; and he won't seek that glen again, and all his friends will flout it.

After graduating from Illinois Woman's college in 1915, she took special work at the University of Chicago for two years. In the war time Mrs. Snohr went to New York City to engage in war work for the Y. M. C. A. In the past year she has been in advertising work and with marked success.

Mr. Snohr is a native of Denmark and after attending the schools in his native locality took his degree at the Royal university at Copenhagen. He entered newspaper work and for the past eight years has been a world traveler as a correspondent for Danish newspapers. In the latter part of 1918 he came to New York City and has been engaged in advertising work and is now assistant manager in the foreign department of one of the great New York advertising agencies. His knowledge of his home country and experience during his travels have fitted Mr. Snohr especially for his present important work. ## THE VALUE OF CHEERFULNESS.

Dr. Thomas W. Smith occupied the pulpit at Westminster church Sunday morning with a large audience present. Dr. Smith, along with a gospel theme, presented a study of Robert Louis Stevenson's spirit. The minister pointed to much that is helpful in the life of Stevenson, who although he spent so many years with physical pains and handicaps, always managed to keep the bright and hopeful view.

Dr. Smith pointed to the need of sane, practical optimism in these troublesome days and laid some special emphasis upon the need for cheerfulness. It was a sermon of a helpful, cheering kind and made everyone in the audience feel that just because there are individual pains or griefs that telling about them does not alleviate. In other words, if you happen to have sciatica or feel gloomy in spirit, there is no use taking the joy out of somebody else's life by detailing all the facts about yourself.

"The Fighting Shepherdess"

By Caroline Lockhart

One of the Best Selling Novels of the Year
Charming and more captivating than ever is Anita Stewart in "The Fighting Shepherdess." A story of life and love in the great west where romance and drama are born.
The story of Kate Prentice, scorned by a sexless hatred by men who "win at any price," laid out in the beautiful vistas of the Western sheep and cattle land. Tense, gripping drama, with a wealth of incident and humor.
The greatest woman's book in years. It has thrilled countless thousands with its story of the tireless, remorseless, implacable struggle of Kate Prentice, beautiful daughter of Jezebel, whose mothering is confined to running the bar in her roadhouse. The big, open range, desperate, hard riding, merciless cattle-men who recognize no sex in their efforts to drive Kate and her flock from their domain. They seek her life, her good name and bar her way to love—but she fights alone, and wins her battle with man's weapons, but not in man's way. The one big treat we have in store for you this season.

Unightly Disfigurements Tell of Impure Blood

Don't close your eyes to the warning which nature gives, when unsightly pimples appear on your face and other parts of the body.

Not only are these pimples and blotches disfiguring, but they lead to serious skin diseases that spread and cause the most discomforting irritation and pain. Sometimes they foretell Eczema, boils, blisters, scaly eruptions and other annoyances that burn like flames of fire, and make you feel that your skin is ablaze.

When these symptoms appear on any part of the body, take prompt steps to rid the blood of these disorders. And the one remedy which has no equal as a blood cleanser is S. S. S., the purely vegetable blood medicine, which has been on the market for more than fifty years. It is sold by druggists everywhere.

RECORD OF ENGLISH DERBY IS ECLIPSED

Attendance This Year at Great English Derby Crowded Race Course to Standing Capacity—All Classes Represented in Great Crowd.

Epsom Downs, Eng. — The great English Derby, always a fashion show and a carnival as well as a horse race, this year eclipsed the records of its hundred and fifty years with an attendance which crowded the race course to standing capacity and populated the hills in a day with a crazy-patterned city of hundreds of thousands of merry-makers, to whom the racing was only an incident in the celebration of the annual festival.

My lord and my lady, the bar-maid and the coster-monger, and all classes of Britons between, were there, hobnobbing with pleasure-seekers from other lands — Americans, Frenchmen, Belgians, Italians, Russians, Czechoslovakians and titled as well as work-worn Orientals, and Asiatics. The low green hills and hedged-in fields about the famous course were blackened with a multitude of nearly 1,000,000 persons, thousands of whom slept in the warm sun throughout the day, apparently unconcerned about the "Derby" contest.

The pilgrimage to the downs began the day before the Derby. An unbroken tide of strange equipages flowed into Epsom over all roads. Luxurious limousines crawled along the crowded ways in the wake of two-wheeled donkey cars, and the caravans were checked with the picturesque turn-outs popular before motor-driven vehicles limited their usefulness—the chaise, the coach-and-four, the Irish jauntying car, the dog cart, and odd home-made wagons and carts.

Not infrequently appeared disabled army officers riding thru the dust in motor-driven chairs.

Throngs afoot trooped in across the fields. Children lounged in the grass along the roads, hailing the fine automobiles and their silk-hatted occupants cheerily. Here and there a woman with a baby in her arms begged a penny.

While yet a mile from the course the later arrivals were forced by the congestion to park their vehicles and walk—carrying with them their luncheon baskets, and jugs of ale or whiskey, of which there was a large and carefully conserved supply.

The picnickers who camped on the course overnight hastily pitched tents, or ramshackle lean-tos, made tea and served luncheons. Many slept in the open, and down in Epsom a train of cars was commandeered to house the more fastidious. After dark bonfires were built, flares put up, and all the countryside was fantastically illuminated.

Even when the king and queen and attendant nobility appeared there was only a ripple of applause, consisting chiefly of perfunctory "Hear, hear!" and a nodding of heads indicating approval. Above this the raucous cries of the tipsters and the hoarse jargon of the bookmakers could be heard.

Few persons except those in the stands saw the races, and these displayed no excitement, beyond calling out "they're off" or making premature announcement of winners.

The crowds stood up when the horses entered in the Derby run, but relaxed into lazy attitudes when the winner was known. It was still the middle of the afternoon and few left when the racing was finished. They made it a full holiday, wandering around and over the course, patronizing the vendors of sausages, lemonades and fish, or try-your-weight machines, or the three-card-man, until night had fallen.

SCHOOL BOARD AWARDS CONTRACT FOR BONDS

Bid of William R. Compton & Company of St. Louis Accepted—Board Overrides President Lippincott in Making Award—M. F. Dunlap Gives Statement on Contract.

The board of education met last evening to open the bids for the issue of $220,000 worth of five per cent bonds. There was lively discussion over the matter but finally the bid was awarded to William R. Compton & Co. of St. Louis.

The proceedings. The board met in called session with all present except Member Caldwell. The call was read and the clerk was instructed to open the bids offered. The principal features of the bids are given though each contained a number of conditions. They were in the main as follows.

Those Who Made Bids. W. R. Compton & Co., par. the board to pay a commission of $15,000, the bidders to pay for printing the bonds, attorney's opinion and also accrued interest.

National City Bank, $201,934. Hornblower & Weeks, Chicago. Par and interest; immediate acceptance; the board to pay for attorney's opinion and to them $16,126 commission.

George Nuveem & Co., Chicago: $205,248, subject to approval of attorney.

Elliott State Bank representing N. W. Harris Trust Co., Chicago. Par and interest and $15,554 fees.

A. B. Leach & Co., Chicago. $201,960 and interest.

Ames, Emerich & Co., Chicago. Par and interest and $18,887 fees. A sub-bid with various conditions regarding delivery of bonds and deposits of money, fees, $14,487.

Bids are Discussed. There was considerable discussion over the matter. The representative of Hornblower and Weeks said they had been obliged to have bonds at Joliet printed so that they might be signed by the officials in office at the time of their issue. The Jacksonville high school bonds were signed by the president and secretary and then duly in office but not in office now.

The chair said he could hardly see any reason in reprinting the bonds as they were signed by persons lawfully in office when they were signed.

The matter of deciding which was the best bid was referred to the finance committee. Members Rogerson, Black and Rapp, to investigate and report. The genlemen retired and soon after came back with their decision.

The bid of William R. Compton & Co. contemplated payment by the firm for printing the bonds and for the attorney's fee. As this had been done and the fee already secured and paid for by the board the representative of the firm said he thought it proper to deduct that sum, $350 from their fee.

Another question arose regarding the use of the money. Some offers were for all cash down. M. F. Dunlap was present and said that he represented no firm or person but would give the board five per cent for their unused money.

It was then moved that the board accept the offer of William R. Compton & Co.

Chair Refuses to Put Motion. The chair declared the motion out of order as it was, he said, a subterfuge. Under the guise of a fee to the brokers the board was really selling the bonds below par.

An appeal from the decision of the board was taken and the board unanimously refused to sustain him. Still he refused to put the motion insisting it was a subterfuge and improper.

It was suggested that the board confronted a condition and not a theory. In the present condition of the money market the bid was a very good one. It would be perfectly within the law to pay any person $15,000 to find a purchaser for these bonds. It would not do to tear up the bonds and ask the people to vote six per cent securities; it would not be possible to make a temporary loan for the bonds could not be put up as collateral and money must be had.

The chair said he would put a motion to sell these bonds to William R. Compton & Co. for $204,820; the motion was so changed and passed.

It is proper to state here that the firm repays $5,500, accrued interest and the attorney's fees, printing and other expenses to that, the real fee is a trifle more than $10,000.

There were several matters threshed out between the firms of William R. Compton & Co., N. W. Harris & Co. and Hornblower & Weeks regarding some changes and the like but there is not space to enumerate them.

Speaking of the matter, M. F. Dunlap said, "I consider the board has made a very good bargain. So far as I have observed bonds of like rate and character have sold at a much lower figure when we consider that liberty bonds on a 5-7-8 basis and these bonds have been disposed of at a very slight reduction from a higher figure I think the board is to be congratulated on the result."

Take It For What It's Worth

St. Louis, Mo., June 18.—Here's a tip.

Buy your fall shoes now. You'll get 'em cheaper if you do.

This is hot from shoe manufacturers in this, the world's greatest shoe market.

Prices are lower now than they have been for many months because of a failure on the part of retail shoe dealers to buy. But in a month or two, or three, dealers will begin to enter the market again. They will begin to want shoes all at once and then up will go the prices again.

Retailers are not buying now because they can't get the money from the banks to buy with. Banks have stopped loans for speculative purposes. Instead of buying they are liquidating—selling their stock at less than they would have to pay to replace it at present prices.

"Just one thing is causing the present low price of shoes, lack of money," said George A. Bull, vice president of the Brown Shoe company, which is shipping out daily approximately 200,000 pairs of shoes.

The banks' new policy of refusing money for speculation is good, sound business and it will eventually prove beneficial, although now it is causing all of us to be cautious. We were all gambling. Now we find that we can't.

"The resulting lack of ready money caused the retailer to start liquidating, the jobber followed suit and we fell in line. We are selling made up stock at lower prices than we are quoting futures, although recently we announced a general decrease in prices."

ALD. MOORE PROTESTS SUNDAY CARD PLAYING

Tells Council It is Disgrace to City—Many Other Matters Considered—Council Adjourns to Tuesday Evening, July 6.

Alderman Moore brought up the matter of Sunday card playing at the regular meeting of the city council, Monday evening. The alderman said the matter had been brought to his attention and he had investigated it for himself. He told the council that the conditions existing were a disgrace to the city.

Howard Zahn petitioned the city council to release a judgment against his property in East Court street where he is building his new garage. The petition recited that in 1892 an ordinance had been passed for paving the alley running along the west side of his property. The pavement was never built but the judgment still stands, giving a cloud to the title.

A number of other matters were given consideration. When adjournment was taken it was until Tuesday evening, July 6, at 7:30 o'clock. This action was taken because of the fact that next Monday will be a legal holiday and a number of the members of the council expect to be out of the city.

When the roll was called it showed all aldermen present, except Aldermen Chapin and Ehrie. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

Wants Property Released.

A petition was read from Howard Zahn asking the city to take steps toward releasing a judgment against his property in East Court street where he is building a garage.

The petition recited that the city council had passed an ordinance in 1892 providing for a pavement in the alley adjacent to the property on the west. This pavement had never been built.

However, the judgment had been placed against the property in the county court and still stood. Because of this, the petition stated, it was impossible to obtain a clear title to the property.

The matter was referred to the city treasurer and city attorney with power to act.

Will Collect Vehicle License.

Mayor Pro Tem Cain told the council that he had conferred with Chief of Police Kiloran relative to vehicle licenses. Chief Kiloran reported that a number of firms had not yet paid the fee.

Mr. Cain said no drastic action had been taken but that something should be done soon. It was the sense of the council that the ordinance be strictly enforced.

Mr. Cain said that he would so instruct the chief of police.

Alderman Flynn, chairman of the sewer committee called the attention of the council to the present fee for tapping sewers. The alderman said he had checked up the labor required and found that it cost more than the fee received.

Mr. Flynn thought the fee should be at least $50, if the city was to break even on the work. He was instructed to draft an amendment to the ordinance fixing the fee at $50 or whatever he thought necessary to prevent the city losing money.

Alderman Flynn also reported that he had seen children playing with children in houses where there was a small box and wanted to know if something could not be done to prevent this.

Mayor Pro Tem Cain said that a special health officer had been appointed and that he was just getting into the work. However, he said it was a difficult matter to prevent the conditions referred to by Alderman Flynn.

Alderman McGinnis called attention to the failure of citizens to put down walks where ordinances had been passed. He said the ones who had done so were protesting because the city did not take some action to have the walks laid. The clerk was instructed to insert a notice in the papers notifying all persons to lay walks immediately where ordinances had been passed or the city would be filed against the property.

Sunday Card Playing.

At this point Alderman Moore said it had been brought to his attention that card playing was going on in a number of places on Sunday. The alderman said he had visited these places to see for himself.

He said that they were a disgrace to the city and that should be stopped. Alderman Moore seconded by Alderman Williamson offered a motion that the city clerk be instructed to ascertain if there was an ordinance covering this and report at the next meeting of the council.

an inspector appointed. The committee offered their services to assist in any way possible in the preparation of an ordinance. The committee was told that Mayor Crabtree had the ordinance in charge and that it would be taken up when he returned from the east.

Superintendent of Streets

White wanted to know if there was any ordinance against oiling paved streets. He was told there was not and said that a property owner had asked permission to oil in front of his property.

Alderman Williamson spoke of the walks in West State street which were in a dangerous condition. He said he was not prepared to make a report until a thorough examination had been made.

Then a number of ditches in East College avenue which were said to be in a dangerous condition were discussed, but no action taken.

Must Make Reservoir Safe.

The matter of the reservoir of the Jacksonville Railway and Light Company in the rear of their ice plant was brought up. The reservoir is full of water and there is no protection against persons, and especially children from falling in the water. The clerk was instructed to notify Mr. Gray to have the same placed in a safe condition.

The clerk also was instructed to notify Dr. Harker to cut the hedge on the Woman's College grounds at the corner of East College avenue and South Clay avenue.

Attention also was called to the dangerous condition at the intersection of South Main street and Michigan avenue, because of a high fence on the State hospital ground. The matter was referred to the mayor to take up with Dr. Hill.

There being no further business the council on motion adjourned to Tuesday evening, July 6, at 7:30 o'clock.

CHIROPRACTIC UNDER FIRE

Those who accepted disease and suffering as a natural part of life's experience, laughed and scoffed when Chiropractic first launched the idea that ill health was unnatural and the direct result of spinal pressure on the nerves, which shut off the life forces of the body. And they ridiculed the idea that by simple Chiropractic spinal adjustments, without drugs or knife, this pressure could be relieved, the cause of disease corrected and normal conditions, health restored.

But in the face of it all, Chiropractic has advanced because it has proved it is right. Thousands who formerly suffered are now enjoying health through the aid of and it is rapidly being accepted as the logical, most effective drugless health science of the ages. If you are not enjoying good health, give Chiropractic (KI-RO-PRAC-TIC) a fair, open-minded investigation and prove its value to you and your loved ones.

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcine in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

MISSION CIRCLE OF LITERBERRY MEETS

Mrs. Warren Daniels Hostess To Members of Organization Recently—Landis Young Celebrates Birthday—Other News from Literberry.

Literberry, June 28—The Mission circle met on Friday with Mrs. Warren Daniels. The subject for the afternoon was India and Her People, by Mrs. D. K. McCarty. Mrs. J. A. Litter gave an account of the work of John Mason Peck in Illinois, in the early days, and of his work and influence in building the college known as "The Shiloh College" at Alton. Daintz refreshments were served at the proper time, dues were paid and the meeting closed by the benediction, Psalm 2-8.

Rev. W. R. Johnson preached a fine sermon Sunday morning at the Baptist church. Morning lesson was from Isaiah 33-13 to 24. Text verses, 20 and 21 of the same chapter. This was a good sermon, representing the church of God and some of the requirements and rewards.

There was a good attendance and some visitors; among them we noticed Mrs. Fannie Norman of Jacksonville.

In July, 1919, a prize was offered in the Golden Rule class to the scholar who was most faithful in attendance for one year. Mrs. S. H. Crum gained the prize which was the book, "Pollyanna, the Glad Girl." The president of the Ladies' Aid has requested Mrs. Crum to read the book and give it in her own words at some meeting of the Aid in the near future or make a story of it for her Aid sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Daniels and Harold Lee, and Mrs. Guy and Eleanor went fishing on Monday to Clear Lake.

We had the pleasure of attending services at Grace Chapel on Sunday afternoon, where we expected to hear our pastor, Rev. Joseph Yemm, but heard instead, Rev. Steinfeld of Chapin, in a very good sermon on "Temptations and the Strength Derived if They are Overcome." Mr. Steinfeld sang a solo, "My Lord and I."

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Culbertson of Old Virginia visited Friday.

G. B. Litter is visiting the Rochester in Roodhouse.

Landis Young celebrated his twelfth birthday. Thursday by asking a few friends in, cake and ice cream was served.

A LOT OF APPLES.

Max Gehring was in the city yesterday in his traveler's auto in which he makes most of his trips representing a Springfield wholesale house. He says his change of occupation has been a good thing for his health which was not good. He tells of a visit he made to a Calhoun county landing on the Mississippi side from which a man told him 85,000 barrels of apples were shipped from last fall's crop. Mr. Gehring says he asked especially the second time to be certain he understood the man properly. There were other shipping points also in addition to the one visited. If Calhoun has neither railroad, telegraph nor express office she surely has some apples.

Mr. Gehring says he found in Calhoun the hills and brooks encountered anywhere but some fine people.

A few years ago when there was an exceptionally large apple crop a man sold the product of his orchard to a commission firm and he took his wife to Hardin to sign a deed supposing he had sold his farm.

Jasper Hopper was a city caller from Roodhouse yesterday.

A Company that believes in quality, not quantity. market and we are willing to prove the assertion. Nothing better on the by actual work in the field. Light weight. Big draw bar pull. Used by the most successful farmers.

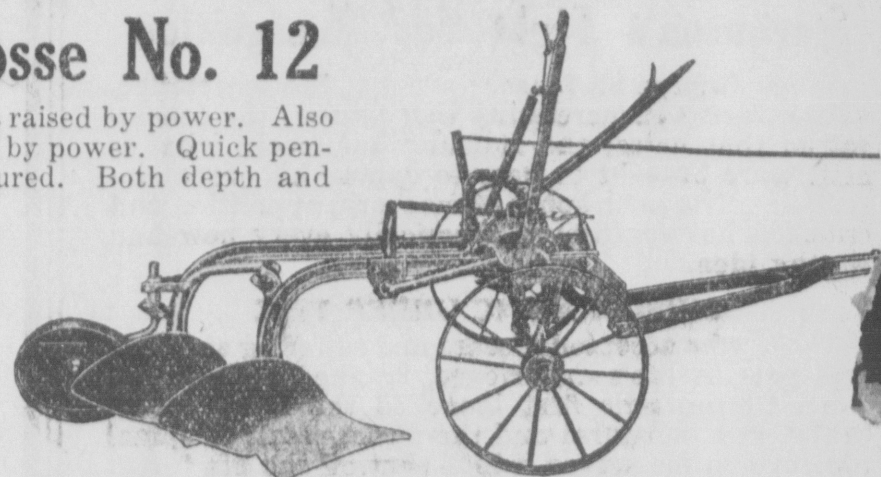

Four cylinder motor. Unit power plant. Two speed sliding gear transmission. Ball and roller bearings running in oil. Oil tight and dust proof bearings. All Hyatt ball or roller. B. & W. radiator, always running cool, uses very little water; a gallon jug all you need. More power for less expense. The 100 per cent motor for the farmer.

SEE IT AT WORK—ASK ANY USER

The Wonderful Plow for Small Tractors The LaCrosse No. 12

The LaCrosse No. 12 is raised by power. Also forced into the ground by power. Quick penetration is always assured. Both depth and levelling levers are within easy reach of operator. You can make any adjustment from the seat of the tractor. Clearance when out of ground nine inches.

SEE THIS PLOW BEFORE YOU BUY

Co-operation means making the best of what you have by properly using the same. You will soon have your wheat and oats in the bin. Then is the time to keep the ball rolling and have your stubble plowed. Ground plowed early, even when hard and dry, will pay you big whether you intend to resow wheat or plant corn next year, as it retains the fertility of the soil. To plow at once you need a tractor. For the real practical farmer we have the machine, a Tractor to fit any sized farm, and a plow that does the work right.

Remember our motto—MORE VALUE FOR LESS MONEY. We set the pace. Our service makes us friends. We are ready to take care of your wants any old time.

GROCER THANKFUL

"I had been sick nearly 20 years with stomach trouble and was slowly starving to death as everything I ate caused terrible gas and pain and my food did not digest. I was reduced to 115 pounds. A friend advised me to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy about 4 months ago, which I did and now weigh 151 lbs. and can eat anything. I am very thankful for Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at all druggists.—Adv.

NEIGHBOR GAVE

PROPER ADVICE
TO SICK FRIEND

Urged Use of Trutona Which Soon Cleared System of Long Standing Ailments.

Springfield, Ill., June 28.—"Before I began using Trutona, I was thoroughly disheartened over trying to get available relief from my troubles," says Gus Pogonick, who lives in Springfield, at 724 North Second street.

"I had suffered from sciatic rheumatism for the past twenty years. I was all bent over and couldn't straighten up. My bowels wouldn't move without the aid of laxatives, and my appetite was so poor that I could scarcely eat anything. I was very nervous all the time, and I couldn't sleep well at night. I suffered greatly from pains in my head and the back of my neck also.

"I honestly thought I was beyond all medical aid, until a neighbor advised me to try Trutona, and to my surprise it has done for me just what the other medicines failed to do all these years. I don't suffer from the rheumatism as I did; my appetite is good, and I can eat and digest most anything now. My bowels are regular as a clock, and I sleep just fine all night long. I seem to be improving every day now, and the pains in my head and the back of my neck have left me. Trutona is making me feel younger and better than I have for years."

Trutona is really a medicine of unusual merit. It is unsurpassed as a reconstructive agency, system purifier and body invigorant. It has been declared peerless as a treatment for stomach, liver and bowel troubles.

Trutona is being explained and introduced in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve and is sold in Franklin by the Wyle Drug Co.

a concert next Saturday evening also. Everybody come.

C. F. Kehl of Mexico, Mo., spent from Sunday to Monday here with relatives.

Alfred Kehl and Miss Mary Briggs were guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kehl Sunday. Mrs. Howard Henry was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Annie Ferguson in Jacksonville Friday.

Mrs. Fred L. Fishback and son, Coleman of Washington City recently ended a visit at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Robert Cunningham, 911 West College avenue after having attended the Republican Convention in Chicago. Coleman Fishback is a Junior at Harvard Medical school and will spend the summer touring Glacier National Park.

A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Jacksonville. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. A. Long, 900 Beesley Ave., Jacksonville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the best kidney remedy I have ever used and I have recommended them to many people. I took Kidney Pills for lameness across my back. At times I was so bad I could hardly get through with my housework; my kidneys weren't acting right, either. I was advised to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I got some at Allcott's Drug Store. They soon removed the trouble and I haven't had any symptoms of kidney trouble since."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Long had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

The Simplicity of a

MAXWELL

is Due to Special Steels

A Maxwell is a simple car. Its engine, axles, clutch, transmission and gears are the utmost in simplicity, which is the goal of scientific engineering.

Special steels have made this possible. They are steels made to Maxwell's own formulae, the result of thousands of tests and years of analysis.

These steels give a Maxwell the remarkable combination of extra strength and lightness in weight.

In this way complicated construction has been avoided. Simple design has naturally followed and to this simplicity rare strength has been added by the use of these special steels.

Strains, twists, thrusts, shocks and blows are protected against in many other cars by reinforcements, extra weight in metals used, and a design that obviously is anything but simple.

In a Maxwell this simplicity has made the car easier to build, and it therefore is better built, easier to drive, and easier to care for.

That this should win friends for Maxwell is almost too obvious to call attention to.

Nearly 400,000 persons now drive a Maxwell, which is a very definite endorsement.
